Postmark Is Granted City During Week

"Albany" Cancellation Appears on Local Air Mail

Through special efforts by Postmaster Frank M. Whiting, Albany citizens are this week being given a "preview" of how mail will be marked when the awaited Post Office is established here. The postmark "Albany, Calif." is being placed on air mail letters posted at the two local substations during the current "Air Mail Week" which ends tomorrow.

To obtain this cancellation, Postmaster Whiting has pointed out, it is necessary to deposit air mail letters in the special boxes at either Poppe's Pharmacy, 1419 Solano Avenue, or Repp's Albany Pharmacy, 911 San Pablo Avenue.

This is the first time that Albany has been recognized in this manner and it is responsible for a "sellout" by local stations of the souvenir air mail envelopes bearing the inscription: "Berkeley-Albany Air Mail Week, 20th Anniversary." On the reverse side is a short summary of the many advantages of the two cities, written by Lloyd C. M. Hare, Albany author, and E. I. McCormac, historian.

ALBANY PARTICIPATES.

Joining the rest of the Nation in the week to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the air mail service, Albany citizens are sending air mail letters to their friends all over the country, as well as to acquaintances and relatives in this city.

Stamp collectors are reportedly having an extremely busy week, gathering the local cachets which are doubly valuable because of the unique marking and the national celebration.

Whiting's "treat" for Albany has brought praise from local civic leaders and others. Mayor O. C. Yenne has expressed his approval, as has Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

With only today and tomorrow left in which to collect these "first" postmarks, a last-minute flood is expected at both postal stations, it is reported.

Official Visit to Treasure Island Is Enjoyed Friday

Mayor O. C. Yenne and Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, president of the Chamber of Commerce, returned to Albany Friday afternoon filled with enthusiasm about the wonders of Treasure Island, site of the Golden Gate International Exposition next year.

The two were members of a party of 300 officials and civic leaders that was taken on the trip by train and boat. As the latter cruised about the island, and those aboard enjoyed a fine luncheon, the wonders of the coming exposition were explained in detail.

Both were eloquent in describing the Tower of the Sun, the huge structure now being erected on the island. A highlight of the trip was the inspection tour of the sunken gardens, they declared.

Boy, 3, Injures Arm in Wringer

That gleaming, whirring object into which mothers put clothes on wash day is no place for three-year-old boys to be playing. So realizes little Charles Schultz of 824 Santa Fe Avenue who stuck his tiny arm in the wringer to see what would happen last Tuesday.

He painfully found out. Rushed to Humboldt Hospital by Mrs. George Schultz, he was treated for bruises. Now home, he keeps a long way from the washing machine, his parents report.

Girl Breaks Arm In Fall at Marin

Falling while at play in Marin School playground, Mary Alice Hall, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal W. Hall of 72 Santa Fe Avenue, suffered a fractured left arm Tuesday afternoon. She was taken to Humboldt Hospital by Police Chief Lloyd Jester.

The child was treated by Dr. Douglas Ream, was taken home later by her mother.

P.T.A. Holds Style Show

A glimpse into the future as well as today will be given to fashion-minded Albany women with the presentation of a fashion show sponsored by the Marin P. T. A. at 1:30 o'clock, Friday afternoon, May 27. The show will be given in the school auditorium.

In connection with it an international tea will be held, and there will be tables for cards. School children dressed in Dutch costumes will preside over a candy sale; songs of different nations will be sung by choral groups, and a "gypsy" fortune teller will go from table to table. Eight door prizes have been provided.

The committee in charge of the fashion show consists of Mrs. Mervyn Edwards, chairman; Mrs. Louis J. Hardie, Mrs. E. R. Hill, Mrs. A. W. Kissner, Mrs. D. A. Thompson, Mrs. George Woody, Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mrs. H. P. Herr, Mrs. Arthur Norton, Mrs. Karl Zeimer, Mrs. George Sutton and Mrs. John T. Kane.

'Clarence' Is To Be Given On 2 Nights

Albany will be afforded two chances next week to see Booth Tarkington's sensational laugh success, "Clarence", as members of the High School senior class present the play Wednesday and Thursday nights at the Veterans Memorial Building. Curtain time is 8:15 p. m.

"Clarence", being offered as the annual senior play, will be featured by the final local appearance of a number of well known High School thespians. Ronald Knox will play the coveted title role, with Betty McPherron as his leading lady. Important supporting parts are taken by Louis Marengo, Marcella McClellan, LeRoy Hoffman, Marjorie Meredith, Emerson Ahlgren, Doris Dutrow, Richard Atkinson and Geraldine Wright.

This four-act comedy was chosen by Miss Elizabeth Gray, teacher who is in charge, because of its tremendous success on Broadway where it drew capacity crowds for two years. Featured in it have been such stars as Helen Hayes and Alfred Lunt.

According to Miss Gray the local players are doubly anxious to please their many friends at the two performances. First, it will mark their goodbye as students of Albany High; and secondly, it will be the first opportunity that many residents of this city have had to witness the laugh riot.

Tickets are now on sale by students and members of the cast, or may be obtained at the office of Principal Charles A. Moore. The admission price is 25 cents for either night.

Scheik's Will Mark Fifth Year Tomorrow Night

An invitation to their many friends to be present tomorrow night at a fifth anniversary celebration, was issued this week by Oscar and Addie Scheik, owners of the Palm Garden, 1396 Solano Avenue. The party will also mark the 23rd wedding anniversary of this popular couple.

"So many of our friends didn't receive the bids that were sent out when we reopened recently that we decided to hold another affair," Scheik said yesterday. Many surprises have been planned, he said. A buffet supper will be served during the evening.

He also announced that members of the Garfield Dads Baseball Club will meet at his place next Thursday night for an evening of bridge and whist. Many worthwhile awards and a fine door prize will await the expected capacity crowd.

Ill last week-end with a sore throat, Miss Yvonne Ellis of 727 San Pablo Avenue, has now recovered. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Ellis and was treated by Dr. Douglas Ream.

J. J. Goodare President of Acacia Club

Congratulations on his election Friday night to the presidency of the Albany Acacia Club are being received this week by J. J. Goodare, well known local citizen and a charter member of the organization. He and Mrs. Goodare live at 1034 Evelyn Avenue, have maintained a home there for the past 13 years.

The new president is a former member of the Park, Planning and Zoning Commission, is a confirmed grower of fine roses as a visit to his home will testify. His hobby is a successful one and his front yard is a mass of multi-hued blooms.

Named vice-president was Dr. William R. Ross, dentist, who lives at 732 Masonic Avenue. Dr. Ross is also active in local club and civic circles, in addition to greeting his many clients at his office, Carmel and Solano Avenues, where he has been located for the past three and one-half years.

DR. WILLIAM R. ROSS

Herbert Caswell was elected secretary and S. Perkins, tyler, at last week's meeting. The new board of directors is made up of Irving M. Liner, retiring president; Charles Moore, Olai Aune, Lou Miller and Charles A. Moore, principal of Albany High School.

The session marked the close of an extremely active and successful year under the leadership of President Liner. Installation of the new officers and resumption of the club's activities will take place in September, it was announced.

New Leader

J. J. Goodare, who was elected president of the Albany Acacia Club last Friday night.

25 to Become Citizens Here

Twenty-five residents of this district will be awarded American citizenship in rites to be held the first week in June at Cornell School, discloses Mrs. Jessie J. Williams, instructor of the English and citizenship classes on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

According to Mrs. William, who is also the Americanization teacher at the High School, most of those to attain citizenship are long-time residents of Albany, several having lived here for more than 20 years.

An outstanding speaker, yet to be secured, will also be a feature of the "graduation" exercises, she said.

More than 60 present and past members of the class recently gathered at her home, 1009 Ordway Street, to enjoy a musical program and games. Among the performers appearing were Miss Frances Williams, pianist; Jenaro Posco, Italian skits; Arthur Bellesano, accordionist; Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brown, vocalists. Miss Edith Rosenburg, English teacher, assisted with the arrangements and refreshments.

Boost Air Mail Week Here

Above: Fred Repp and R. G. Poppe, local druggists and operators of postal substations, are displaying the special air mail envelopes they are now selling for "National Air Mail Week." Below is the special cancellation that is being placed on letters mailed at the two stations this week, the first time that Albany has been so recognized.

Maccabee Groups Enjoy Program

Members of Albany Hive of the Maccabees were guests of the Tent last night at an entertainment program given in Maccabee Temple. Cards were enjoyed following the showing of two reels of motion pictures. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

In charge of the program was Ted Williams, commander of the Tent, and Alden Thorogood.

Store Sold to J. Masoveros

Sale of the grocery store at 1222 Solano Avenue, to Mr. and Mrs. John Masovero, was announced Tuesday by Morris Chernow, who has operated the market for more than 12 years. The name will be changed in the near future to Masovero's Grocery.

The new owners recently arrived from Kansas where they successfully operated bakery and grocery stores. They have a son, Billy, 9.

According to their present plans, the couple will feature vegetables and quality groceries. In addition, a complete line of delicious luncheon meats and delicatessen foods will be carried.

"We've already met quite a number of Albany people and been welcomed by them," Masovero said yesterday. "We want to thank everyone who has greeted us in our new location and will be very happy to meet those who have not yet paid us a visit."

Many specials have been prepared for the coming week-end, he announced.

Seeks Trial By Jury in Speed Case

Following his plea of not guilty Wednesday night to the charge of speeding 40 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone, Clyde C. Sherwood, 38, was ordered to appear in court next Tuesday morning for trial. Sherwood, who is chairman of the Alameda County Democratic Central Committee, has asked to be tried by jury. His request will be granted, Judge Louis J. Hardie informed him.

Sherwood was arrested last Thursday by Police Chief Lloyd Jester, who pursued him from Solano Avenue to Panhandle Boulevard in El Cerrito. He has also questioned Jester's right to make the arrest in another city, a fact that will be decided on Tuesday morning by a representative from the District Attorney's office, it is announced.

A $50 fine was paid by E. J. Meagles of San Francisco for being drunk in an automobile. He was arrested by Officer Frank Davis last Friday afternoon.

Frank Elliott, 45, of Berkeley agreed to work out a similar fine for reckless driving. Five days' work for the City will also be supplied by Oroville N. Ellison, 34, also of Berkeley, for the same charge.

Troop 12 Plans Court of Honor

The tenth anniversary of Boy Scout Troop No. 12 will be observed with a Court of Honor to be held at the Memorial Building on Friday, May 27, according to Harvey Brown, scoutmaster.

The Troop is also planning to enter the stag, panther, rattle snake and senior patrols in the Camporee to take place in Tilden Park, tomorrow and Sunday.

Miss Muriel Higgins of 619 Santa Fe Avenue celebrated her fourteenth birthday last week.

After being confined to his some, 902 Ventura Avenue, for several months by pneumonia, Randolph Crouse returned to work for the Standard Oil Company at Richmond last Monday.

Mrs. Phillip Harlow has been confined to her residence, 507 Ramona Avenue, for the past few weeks by illness. Her daughter recently announced that her condition is improving.

Plans Begun to Develop Big Summer Camping Program for All Children in This City

Russelman Park on Mt. Diablo Is Again Chosen For Outings; Committee Seeks to Aid Every Needy Local Child

Formulation of plans for a City-wide camping program, for Albany children from eight to 16 years of age, was begun Tuesday night as representatives of local organizations met with T. L. Farnsworth, superintendent of the Recreation Department.

Those present were informed by Farnsworth that he has inspected every camping site within 100 miles of this city and that he has again selected Russelman Park, on the north slope of Mt. Diablo. This camp which was used last year, will be improved this summer by the addition of a screened kitchen and other new facilities.

Transportation to and from the camp will be arranged by the Albany Maccabees in cooperation with the Rhodes Stages. Through the Federal recreation project, arrangements have been made for the use of cots, mattresses, tents and cooking utensils.

INCREASE COST

Since last year's camp was organized principally for underprivileged children, it was then possible to secure foodstuffs from the Surplus Commodities Department, a Federal agency, and a rate of $3 a week was possible. Since all children will be allowed to attend this year, such aid is not available and the cost must be increased to $5 a week, it was learned.

Under the new plan, the representatives pledged their support to see that the few children unable to afford the charge will be given an opportunity to attend camp. Dancing parties, picnics and other types of benefit affairs will be staged to raise funds so that as many needy kiddies as possible can be given healthful vacations.

"To work out full details of the plan to aid these children, a committee will soon be announced," Farnsworth said. "We are taking this opportunity to appeal to all citizens who can possibly afford to sponsor a week's outing, to do so. If desired, sponsors may select the child they wish to send to camp. Where donations are made directly to the camping fund, however, the committee will select children to be benefited."

NAMED AUDITOR

Mrs. H. Vureck, president of the Play Center Mothers' Club, has been named auditor of the committee. She is the first selection announced by those in charge.

A visit to the park was made early this week by Farnsworth, accompanied by Ed Howell, supervisor, and senior leaders of the Recreation Department. The party reported that all was in readiness for the opening of the camp on June 20.

Application blanks will be on hand tomorrow at the office of the Recreation Department, 850 Masonic Avenue, and at all playgrounds throughout the City. Full information may be secured from the directors in charge.

Girls' Team Starts Play

Albany will have a strong representative in the girls' softball league which is to open soon, announces Tal Wiley, coach. The girls on his team, The Zephyrettes, have been practicing daily at University Park and are ready for competition.

The team is being sponsored by the following firms and business people: C. E. Morris, James J. Ellis Company, Ryken's Men Shop, DeBiasi's Italian Restaurant, El Cerrito Doughnut Shop, The Roberta Ice Cream Bar, and the Berkeley Appliance Company. Other sponsors are being sought, Wiley said. He may be reached at Thornwall 2949.

A game is cheduled Sunday, will probably see the following players in action: Elda Wiley, Mary Marrozzo, Lorraine Girard, Glendine McCormick, Luella Johnson, Sylvia Gerletti, Josephine Marrozzo, Emily Filice, Delberta Whitney, Francis Young, Lea McCormick, Dorothy Lee, June D'Asquith, D. Crosetti, Bernice Hunter, I. McAfee, Dareth Hawley and Dorothy Vrang.

Trucks to Collect Rubbish Tomorrow

Trucks from the Street and Park Departments will cover the entire City tomorrow to pick up debris left on curbs, reports H. I. Dygert, superintendent of streets. This will be the final pick-up to be made during "Clean-Up and Fix-Up Week", which is just ending.

All rubbish should be placed in cartons so that it may be easily handled, Dygert advised. No charge is made for this service.

Several Hits to Show at Albany In Coming Week

Saturday the Albany Theatre will present "Seargeant Murphy", featuring Ronald Reagan and Mary Maguire, a thrill bit dealing with the United States Army Cavalry. As a companion picture "Prescription for Romance", with Kent Taylor, Wendy Barrie, Frank Jenks and Misch Auer, is offered.

"The Buccaneer", starring Frederic March Franciska Gaal and Akim Tamiroff, is a roaring romance of Jean Lafitte, the pirate who saved a Nation. Sharing the screen honors Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, the Jones Family will be seen in "Love on a Budget."

Wednesday brings John Boles and Luli Deste in "She Married an Artist", and "Rolling Caravans." On Thursday and Friday Mae West's latest hit, "Every Day's a Holiday" will be screened. "Penitentiary" is the second feature, with Walter Connolly and Jean Parker.

Manager Frank Jenkins announces that candy will be given each kiddie attending the matinee tomorrow and each Saturday thereafter. Contests are being arranged by The Roberta, 1113 Solano Avenue. A special program of suitable films is also shown.

Other regular attractions are "Derby Night" on Saturday and "Sam's Country Store" on Friday.

Mrs. Ted Williams, wife of the proprietor of the Albany Radio Shop, attended the convention of her sorority in Bakersfield last Saturday. She returned home Sunday night.

Pension Plan to Be Topic of Meet

Details of the California Pension Plan, which is to be placed on the ballot this year, will be fully explained to all who are interested at a meeting tomorrow night at the Women's City Club in Oakland, according to local proponents.

Quoting from literature issued, "The Plan proposes an amendment to the constitution of the State of California . . . to provide every California resident who qualifies, purchasing power in the sum of $30 per week." Payments, it is explained, will be made to those over 50 years of age.

To raise money for the scholarship fund of St. Mary's High School, a card party will be given by the St. Mary's Mother's Club tomorrow evening, according to Mrs. August Rettig, president. The place is 4038 Grove Street, Oakland. Playing starts at 8:15 o'clock. Score cards will cost 35 cents.

A treasure hunt at the Rod and Gun Club was enjoyed by two patrols of Girl Scout Troop No. 20 last Friday. The affair was directed by their captain, Mrs. Randolph Crouse.

AT ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL

By Frances Binante, Publicity Director

DADS' CLUB HAS PARTY FOR WIVES

A "Mothers' and Dads' Night" was conducted at the regular Dads' Club meeting of ths Albany High School on Tuesday, May 17. Installation ceremonies of new officers for the coming year were held. They are: Charles Graeber, president; Orman Stone, vice-president; Clement Senior, secretary; and George Bybee, treasurer.

An interesting program was presented by the students under the direction of F. William Feeny, vice-principal. It included recent prize essay winners, representatives of different clubs in the school, music, singing, debating, etc.

Refreshments were served by the boys from the Home Economics department directed by Miss Mona Ross.

BASEBALL PICTURE PRESENTED

An education sound film, "Batter Up", was presented to the boys of Albany Hight at an assembly Wednesday, May 18. This picture made its debut in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York. Since then it has been loaned out by General Motors to clubs, schools and other organizations. The film includes views of the baseball school maintained by the league for boys under 17 years of age, the All-Star game, and the World Series. Many other problem plays and demonstrations were presented. This film is written and supervised by Lew Fonsesca, director of promotion for the American League, and narrated by Ted Husing, one of the country's best known and best informed sports announcers.

HI-Y BOYS PLAN PICNIC

Tomorrow afternoon, at about 2 p. m., 60 Hi-Y boys and girls from Albany High will leave Albany on their hayride to Marsh Creek. Much entertainment will be offered to the young picnickers, such as swimming, dancing, and refreshments. The affair will last until 10:30 p. m. and a good time is planned for all those going.

GIRLS' LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

A very interesting assembly was presented to the girls on Wednesday, May 18. Mrs. E. R. Jamieson, a sister of Miss Gray, history teacher at the school, spoke about "Egyptian Women." Mr. Jamieson is a missionary in Egypt and has lived there with his wife and 3 children for many years. Mrs. Jamieson illustrated her talk by having girls from the high school dress in native costumes she brought from Egypt.

SPORTS

By Bill Theilacker

SPORTS SEASON NEAR END

With three weeks of school left in which to do or die, the Cougar athletes are pilling up enviable records.

The baseball team met the Alameda nine last Friday and edged out their opponent by a 4-5 score. Although the locals had already dropped the first game of their series to the Hornets, they were forced to play their best baseball of the season to turn the trick last week.

Along with this victory went a third place on the county ladder for the first record ever shown by a Red and White nine in the A. C. A. L.

Bringing the tennis season to a close today at Alameda, the netmen will finish their first excursion into the new league, and tomorrow morning the golfers tee off against Piedmont. The golf team ends play on June 4 at Berkeley.

Captain Don Ward qualified at Edwards Field last week for the State Meet at Hollister on May 28. So ends track for another season.

Football takes the limelight now. Fifty gridders are already out for the annual spring practice, and more can be expected in the fall, which will make this the biggest response to the call of the turf that has ever turned out at this school.

Mrs. Rettig Names Executive Board

Executive board members were named by the recently re-elected president, Mrs. August Rettig, when St. Mary's Mothers Club met at the St. Mary's High School last Friday.

They are Mrs. Michael Boyle, ways and means; Mrs. Elmer McGuire, delegate to the National Catholic Council of Women; Mrs. T. J. O'Brien, alternate; Mrs. Cliff Wixson, philanthrophy; Mrs. Lawrence Brooks, publicity; Mrs. Lawrence Moser, membership; Mrs. Reginald Guichard, hospitality; Mrs. J. W. Brown, sick committee; Mrs. Richard Martin, telephone chairman; Mrs. Thomas Healy, courtesy, and Mrs. Frank Ryken, programs.

Native Daughters to Be Feted at Party

Six members will be honored at a birthday party following the next regular meeting of Albany Parlor No. 260, N.D.G.W., to be held at the Maccabee Temple on Wednesday evening, May 25.

The honorees will be Mrs. Florence Powell, Mrs. Marie Vargas, Mrs. Eva Peterson, Mrs. Nellie Graham, Mrs. Bert Rogers and Miss Antoinette Stallone.

Twenty-five pairs of hand-embroidered pillow cases were bestowed on the holders of high scores at the whist party sponsored by the club on Wednesday evening, May 11, at the Maccabee Temple.

Last Tuesday evening the members of the sewing club were the guests of Miss Isabel Dias.

Mrs. Peterson Hostess To Chat, Stitch Club

Mrs. Noel Peterson of 627 Adams Street was hostess to members of the Chat and Stitch Club last Thursday at an affair which also honored the birthday of Mrs. Peggy Lenox, one of the group.

Also present were Mesdames Bessie Starkweather, Anna Kelly, Rosa Lee iDebell, Dorothy Yeraback, Martha Carter, Elsie Smith, Coos Esterly, Frances Twigger, Babs Diehl, Margaret Olson and Helen Ferguson.

Mrs. Arthur Vargas Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Arthur Vargas was the guest of honor at a birthday dinner given at her home, 1007 Ramona Avenue, recently.

Those present were Mrs. L. Lateija, Miss Betty Hannon, Miss Marie Helen Vargas, Matt Stanley, Jr., William Vargas and Arthur Vargas.

Debonettes Planning Party for June 3

To wind up their pre-vacation activities, a large party will be given by the Debonettes on Friday evening, June 3.

Plans for the coming event will be formulated when the members meet at the home of Miss Betty Hayes, 1013 Ventura Avenue, next Monday evening. Miss Barbara Cordy will preside.

Marin Teacher Injured

Mrs. Paul Burnham, who has been acting as a substitute teacher at Marin School during the illness of Mrs. Verla Newfarmer, suffered a broken wrist last Sunday while ice skating in Oakland. She was treated by Dr. Jack L. Stein, was able to resume her duties this week.

Father Dies in Seattle

On learning of the death of his father last Saturday, H. O. Hendrickson of 838 Madison Street left immediately for the northern city to make the necessary arrangements. Hendrickson is a consulting engineer, employed by the George S. May Company of Chicago.

C. Gordon Britland Feted on Birthday

His birthday, on Monday May 9, was the occasion for a gay party given for C. Gordon Britland, 744 Ponoma Avenue, by Mrs. Britland. Present was a large group of relatives and friends to enjoy a dinner and an evening of good fellowship.

In keeping with Mr. Britland's experience as a lieutenant in the United States Navy, from which he recently retired, decorations at the table consisted of anchors, ropes and sea serpents, with a large ship formed of roses as the centerpiece.

Many beautiful birthday gifts were received from the East, as well as from those present. The evening was enjoyably spent in the exchange of sea yarns and experiences by the host and his guests, in the fitting surroundings of his den filled with curios he has collected from all parts of the world.

Later, coffee with ice cream moulded to resemble hardtack, was served by Mrs. Britland.

Teasdale-Nicolaisen Rites Held Friday 13

Undaunted by superstition, Miss Elaine Nicolaisen and W. E. Teasdale, Jr., chose Friday, May 13, for their wedding day. The ceremony took place at the Oakland residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Elmer Flint.

Vows were exchanged by the young couple as they stood in front of a huge fireplace, which was flanked by two tall urns of calla lilies. Rev. W. L. Bone officiated.

The bride wore a modish frock of rosewood lace and was attended by the Misses Janet Kramer and Jacquline Dito. After rites a reception was held and a weding dinner served for members of the immediate families. Later the newlyweds left for their new home in Alameda.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicolaisen of 1329 Ninty-ninth Avenue, Oakland.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Teasdale, Sr., of 1015 Ramona Avenue. He has resided in Albany for the past 12 years and is a graduate of Marin School. Later he attended the University of California, where he was affiliated with the Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity.

C and Kno Club to Inspect Plants Today

A tour of inspection through the Langendarf Bakery and the Nehi Bottling Company will be taken by members of the C and Kno Club today. The first plant will be visited at 2 o'clock and the second at 3:30.

Plans were decided when the group held their meeting last Thursday. At that time an election of officers was also held. Those who will guide the policy of the club are Mrs. Margaret Howell, president; Miss Veryl Ringeltaube, secretary and Mrs. Margaret Hanahan, treasurer.

Others expected to make the trip are Mrs. Aimie Ringeltaube, Mrs. Vera Farnsworth, Mrs. Ruth Wolf, Mrs. Cora Davis, Mrs. Lucile Dezell, Mrs. Annie McQuaide, Mrs. Flora Kilgore, Mrs. Thelia Batchelder, Mrs. Florence LaShure, Mrs. Anna Farnsworth, Mrs. Emilie Mead, Mrs. Martine Carre, Mrs. Iris Hardie, Mrs. Coos Esterly, Mrs. Amanda Smith, Mrs. Bessie Starkweather and Mrs. A. E. Walters.

Lunch and Program Planned by Aid

A dessert luncheon, preceded by a short musical program, will be given by the Ladies Aid at the Albany Baptist Church on Wednesday afternoon, May 25, at 1:30 o'clock. Most of the plans were completed when the group held its regular meeting at the church on Thursday afternoon, May 12, with Mrs. Wallace Reid presiding.

The program will include a violin solo by Miss Ruth Campbell; several vocal duets by Mrs. Ralph Bowden and Miss Clara Rodgers and an address by a speaker, whose name will be announced later.

Those in charge of the luncheon are Mrs. Ruby Swan, Mrs. Al Frisvold, Mrs. William Welch, Mrs. Rhoda Hunt and Mrs. George Bayliss.

The charge will be 25 cents a person and the public i sinvited to aatend.

John Wesley Will Be Theme of Circle No. 3

In observance of the two hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Methodist Episcopal Church, excerpts from the life of the religious leader, John Wesley, will be read by members of Circle No. 3 of the Albany Community Church when they assemble at the home of their chairman, Mrs. Florence Roblin, 908 Kains Avenue, next Tuesday.

Those invited to attend are Mrs. Thomas Perkins, Mrs. Ethel Platt, Mrs. Bertha Powell, Mrs. Juanita Pelegrin, Mrs. Ellen Roberts, Mrs. Margaret Roberts, Mrs. Mary Swanson, Mrs. Jennie Stewart, Mrs. Susanna Swingle, Mrs. Ethel Thompson, Mrs. Hazel Wallace, Mrs. Ida Wallace, Mrs. Anna Wilcox, Mrs. Amelia Woodbury, Mrs. Florence Weldele, Mrs. Eileen Van Gorder, Mrs. Hattie Zierke, Mrs. Agnes Zuerner, Mrs. Irene Hobson, Mrs. Eva Saywell, Mrs. Floyd Pierson, Mrs. Elizabeth Quince and Miss Elizabeth Walter.

Albany Girls Receive Riding Instructions

Horseback riding was enjoyed by a group of Albany girls, who went for a canter through the Berkeley hills last Saturday. They were given instructions in the art of riding by Miss Penderson of the 4-A Riding Academy. They are planning another jaunt tomorrow.

Those who went were the Misses Shirley O'Neill, Norma Piper, Betty Nunn, Bess Roney, Lila Mae Stafford, Betty Hayes, Doris Dutrow, Frances Donovan, Barbara Cordy, Patty Cordy and Aline Nieman.

Northbrae Church to Be Scene of Luncheon

"I'd Rather Be Right" the play which proved a success on Broadway, will be read by Mrs. Minnie Knox following the annual spring luncheon to be given at the Northbrae Community Church by the Woman's Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon, May 24, at 1 o'clock.

Other features on the entertainment program include vocal numbers by Miss Thora Harper, soprano, accompanied on the piano by Miss Gail King.

The public is invited to attend. Admission is 50 cents.

Annual Spring Tea Held at M. E. Church

Amid vernal-like surroundings of redwood greens and banks of croci, over 100 guests were served at the annual spring luncheon served at the Albany Community M. E. Church by the Ladies' Aid on Thursday afternoon, May 12.

Mrs. Jessie Rose, the guest speaker, addressed the assembly on the topic of "Christianity."

"At Twilight," "Indian Dawn" and several other vocal selections were rendered by a chorus composed of Mrs. Claire McGaw, Mrs. Thelma Braidwood, Mrs. Marie Rydman, Mrs. Minerva Johnson, Mrs. Nellie Brotzman and Mrs. Virginia Howes.

Decorations were arranged by members of Circle No. 4 under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Dunkelberger, Mrs. Virginia Howes and Mrs. Hazel Mason. The repast was prepared and served by Circles Nos. 1, 2 and 3 under the direction of their respective chairmen, Mrs. Vernie Gustafson, Mrs. Daisy Jackson and Mrs. Florence Roblin.

Birthday Celebrated By Ann Woody

Eleven little friends of Ann Woody brought gifts and wishes for "many happy returns of the day" when they attended her seventh birthday party, held at her home, 1042 Pomona Avenue, last Saturday.

An afternoon of games was followed by refreshments, served at a table whih was decorated with nosegays of sweetpeas combined with lollypops.

Those present were Carol Anderson, Nancy Jane Bolden, Leah Bono, Marilyn Granholt, Mary June Anderson, Mary Alice Hall, Shirley Johnson, Barbara Lenes, Claire Matta, Joan Powers and Jacqueline Spaulding.

Scouting Mothers' Party Successful

Exceeding all expectations, the card party recently sponsored by the Scouting Mothers of Troop No. 45, netted $90.90, it was reported at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Vadis Kilker, 940 Jackson Street, last Monday evening.

Those present at the session were Mrs. Marie Donato, Mrs. Pearl Coe, Mrs. Harriet Tronoff, Mrs. Rubel Johanson, Mrs. Dorothy Elliott, Mrs. Gussie Hunter, Mrs. Esther Wood, Mrs. Lorene Devers, Mrs. Theresa Ham, Mrs. Ruth McGeorge and Mrs. Marie Hill.

The next meeting is scheduled to take place at the latter's residence, 267 Berkeley Park Boulevard, Berkeley, on Monday evening, June 6.

Girl, 11, Hostess At Party on Monday

Jeannette Peterson, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Peterson, 1021 Key Route Boulevard, was hostess Monday afternoon to a group of her young friends at a party. The affair honored Karen Price, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Price, 1027 Key Route Boulevard.

Refreshments were served at a table decorated in pink and blue, with a centerpiece of pink roses and coral bells. Guests present were Janice Bernard, Claudia Williams, Marianne Pendo and Gertrude Parrish.

Miss Christensen Has Out of Town Visitor

Miss Nelly Christensen was the house guest of her sister, Miss Agnes Christensen, 728 San Carlos Avenue, over the week-end.

The former is a student attending Teachers' College in Chico.

Mr., Mrs. Reid Plan Trip to New York

Although their vacation does not commence until July 2, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Reid and sons, Robert and Jimmy, have already completed plans for a month's trip, most of which will be spent in Buffalo, N. Y., with the former's relatives.

Mrs. Reid, who has never been that far East before, is looking forward to seeing Niagara Falls and Coney Island.

Their first destination will be Rice Lake, Wis., where they will be the guests of Charles Bellman, a business associate of Mr. Reid.

Miss Vargas Fetes Miss Betty Hannon

May Day motifs were used to decorate the home of Miss Marie Helen Vargas, 1007 Ramona Avenue, on Saturday, May 7, when she entertained at a lingerie shower given in honor of her brother's fiancee, Miss Betty Hannon.

A miniature May-pole with twisted blue and pink streamers and small dolls representing dancers was the centerpiece used at the table where 12 guests were served refreshments following an afternoon of informal entertainment.

MARIN SCHOOL NOTES

See "Story of Water"

"The Story of Water," an interesting motion picture, was explained to more than 400 upper grade students Tuesday morning by Mr. Hennessey of the East Bay Municipal Utility District. The picture presented many little known facts about the water that is brought into this district, was thoroughly enjoyed by the pupils who witnessed it.

Fashion Show Poster

Miss Lewis' room is making nice posters for the fashion show to be held soon. The students work in the old cafeteria with much success, have made a number of striking posters.

Miss Brubaker's classes are also making some fine posters. The spirit of the children is helping a lot.

Oriental Works and Maps

Audrey Fisher and Joyce Harris have made an interesting and original map of China and Japan. They have also pasted pictures of the Orient near the map. Joyce has brought specimens of Oriental works, including money, chests, clothing and chopsticks. The girls explained the map to the high seventh last Friday.

Class Officers Elected

On Monday the high seventh grade that is graduating this year held its second class meeting. Officers were elected as follows: John Ryan, president; Egon Zahn, vice president; Sylvia O'Jala, treasurer, and Audrey Fisher, secretary.

Class colors were also selected and will be blue and red. At the graduation the girls will wear middies and skirts with a red tie. The boys will wear either dark or light trousers, a white shirt and a blue tie.

The class motto has not yet been decided upon, nor has the program. This will be done in the near future. This term's class has 73 children.

Marin Beats 1000 Oaks

The undefeated Marin team beat Thousand Oaks last Friday in a good game, 3-0. Edward Lotti did the pitching and Earl Elliott, the caching. Ed struck out nine men and walked five in the contest. Marin and Cornell have one more game to play at the latter school. Bill Young will probably pitch and Earl will catch.

Canadian Legion Post to Receive Charter June 1

Plans for installation rites and the presentation of a charter to Berkeley Post No. 113, Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League, were discussed at the meeting Wednesday night, reports H. C. Billings, commander-elect. The event is to be held Wednesday, June 1.

Honored guests on the occasion will include Cyril Cane, British consul general, and the State commander of the organization. A gala street parade with bagpipe bands and other musical groups from East Bay Posts will be held.

Veterans who saw service under the British flag in the world war and who are now living in Berkeley, Albany, El Cerrito and Richmond are invited to be present. Full information may be obtained from R. A. Dorian, adjutant, who lives at 216 Yale Avenue, Ashberry 4251.

Opens New Salon

Mrs. Juanita Wheeler, formerly of the Evelyn Beauty Salon, opened the Wheeler Beauty Salon at 3353 Grand Avenue, early this week. She is a sister of Mrs. Allen Johnson, present owner of the loal establishment.

Mrs. George C. Bayliss was confined to her home, 88 Stannage Avenue, the early part of this week by a severe cold.

Mrs. R. J. Wood will entertain the Cub Mothers of Pack No. 3 at her home, 1556 Marin Avenue, on Monday evening, May 23.

"Sky Devils" Is Cerrito Feature

Tonight affords the last opportunity to see Spencer Tracy in "Sky Devils," and Barbara Stanwyck with Herbert Marshall in "Breakfast for Two," at the new Cerrito Theater. Opening tomorrow, for one day only, is Zane Grey's Western, "Drift Fence," with Larry Crabbe and Katherine De Mille, sharing the program with "The Girl From Paris." This picture boasts a fine cast which includes Jack Oakie, Lily Pons, Mischa Auer and Herman Bing, and is said to be a grand comedy and all that the title implies.

The special kiddies matinee at 1:30 will include "Drift Fence," the 3rd chapter "Secrets of Treasure Island," the Three Stooges and Mickey Mouse. Sunday will usher in the big hit, "The Awful Truth," with Irene Dunne and Cary Grant, and "City Girl." Ten-O-Win is reported as still being the big favorite on Saturday and Sunday nights.

Scouts Mothers Discuss "Court"

Plans for a Court of Honor were discussed by Scouting Mothers of Troop No. 12, who met at the Marin School last Wednesday night, with Mrs. Donald Adams presiding.

The group has been selling dish towels and the proceeds will be used to purchase a large birthday cake which will be served at the affair to mark the tenth anniversary of Troop No. 13.

An election of officers will take place at the next regular meeting of the club scheduled for Wednesday night, May 25, at the school.
